INSTRUCTIONS

- When a candidate mentions what is in the square, mark their initials over the box OR place a cut-out of their face over the square. If you do the cut-out option, print out a few copies of the image below, and cut out each candidate's face.
- You win when you've completed a whole row, column, or diagonal line before anyone else you're playing with! But really the fuller your board is at the end of the night, the more our movements are winning. You can keep playing on the same board or a different one on the second night of debates.
- Remember to think about the questions in the FREE spaces as you watch!
